My experience with Twisted-Doctor / Sleepykinq / jfkonfucius / Skrill / Bones / Jeremy

Warnings for: grooming, nsfw artwork, talk of fetishes such as piss, vore, inflation, mentions of n*crophilia and inc*st

This document was made after this one from another victim. I highly encourage you to read it before this one. The events that occurred heavily overlap, as it happened in the same time frame, friend group, and I was a friend of the victim throughout the time the events happened. I have spoken with them directly, and have been given permission to reference it.

This document from another victim has also been posted which I encourage you to read as well.

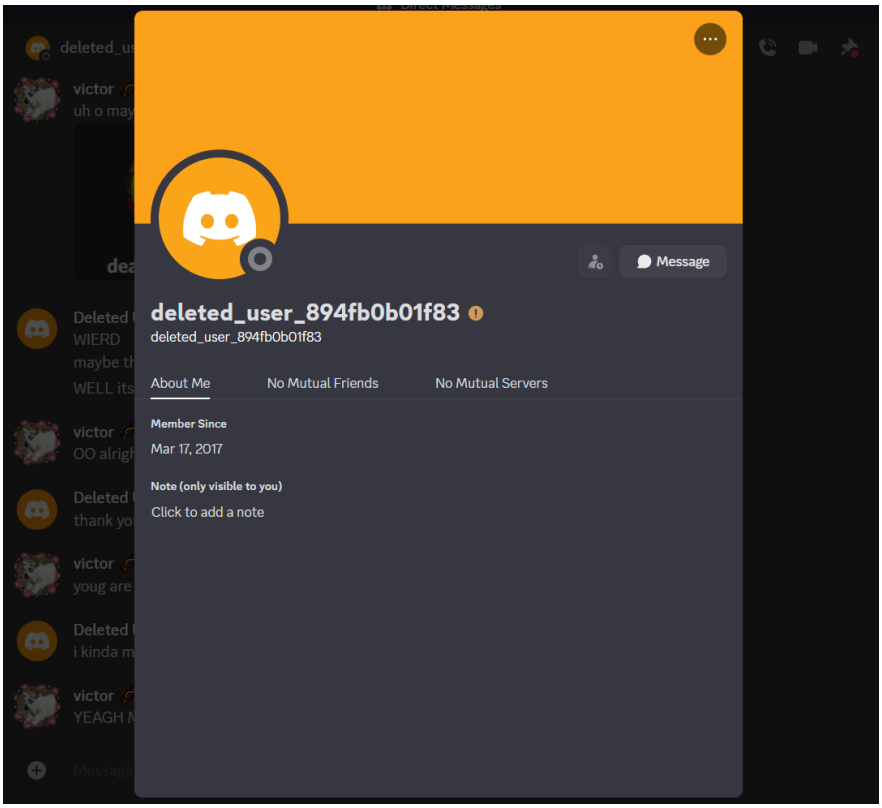
Everything that has been brought up in their document is 100% factual, and can be backed up by myself and other people in our friend group at the time.

There will be screenshots given for context, here is the google drive to see the full quality screenshots.

Important information:

Bones has gone by different names, most notably “Sleepykinq” or “Skrill”, and sometimes “Jeremy” - his birthday is September 22nd, 2001. Meaning that he was 17-19 in 2019 through 2021, when most of these experiences took place. The names I have gone by before are “pasta-pp” or “cain” as well as “victor”, which come up in the screenshots. My birthday is June 28th, 2005, making me 13-15 around this time period. You may know me if you were in Twisted doctor's fanbase in 2018-2020, as I was a moderator in his discord server and made drawings and animations related to him.
Bones groomed me using his influence and exposed me to inappropriate, problematic, fetishistic content on multiple occasions, and directly involved me in fetish artwork when I was 13 years old.

The reason I have not been open about my experience with Bones sooner is because I no longer want to have any ties to him whatsoever. When I was 11-15 years old, my identity was greatly dependent on him and his content, and since 2021 I have spent years breaking any connection I had with him. His actions and being put in this harmful environment has affected me greatly and still continues to stick with me years later.



This is Bones' previous discord account. The account was deleted after his first callout. Most of the messages that we had in dms occurred here.

How we met

Bones and I started talking on May 24th, 2018. It happened because I would often send him asks on tumblr; one day he saw one of my messages, dmed me, asking for my discord:

After this exchange, he added me on discord and we quickly began speaking. He knew my age from the start, in one of the first messages where I introduced myself to him, I stated that I was 12 at the time:

Context / my idolization of Bones

This section is to give context to Bones and I's friendship. It is important to note that I greatly idolized Bones from when I was 11-15 years old, and I would constantly draw his characters, draw our sonas together, wear his merch, draw my own sona wearing his merch, etc. Looking back at it now, I'd say I was somewhat obsessed with him and his ocs/story to an unhealthy degree, worshipping the ground he walked on and it bled into my everyday life. This is to explain that bones knew the power dynamic between us and how much of an influence he had over me while we were friends.

Mystery’s stomach server

In 2017 - 2020, Bones owned a public discord server called “mystery's stomach” where he would speak about his ocs and his content in general.

I joined the server when it was created in ~October 2017, and I was 12 at the time. It was very poorly moderated and people would frequently send graphic things. One specific example that is not entirely Bones’ fault, but still affects me to this day was when someone sent the “Run the gauntlet” challenge website and was asking people how long they could last. To sum it up as nicely as possible - it’s basically a challenge where you watch real life gore videos, graphic sexual content, and in general very obscene footage that would get worse with every level. People in the server were comparing how long they lasted on the challenge. I ended up watching every video as a 12 year old. One of the server rules was “no irl gore” - but the messages stayed up long enough to where multiple people participated and spoke about it. By the time any of the moderators had noticed, the link and conversation was already up for hours.

He had a tendency to make his friends or people he knew into moderators of the server. When I was 13 in 2018, he made me a mod, and I would enforce rules and whatnot. This led me to being exposed to even more nsfw art, irl gore, content unsuitable for any 13 year old to be exposed to. The server had channels for nsfw talk, nsfw artwork, and people could freely share content of the sort. Bones would also frequently talk in the server and make nsfw jokes, knowing minors were around (I believe the nsfw channels were only 13+ and available for basically anyone to view)

Message ...

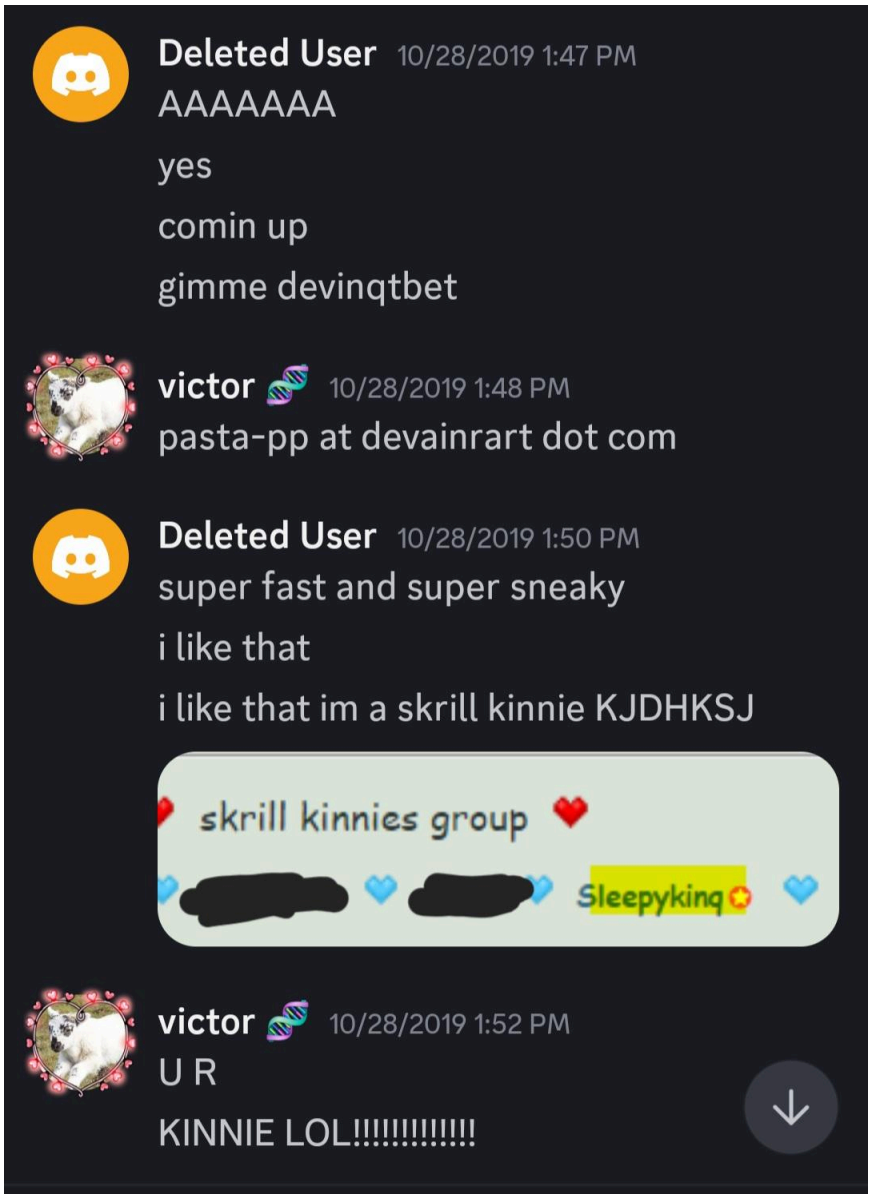
What I am trying to get across is that Bones was very irresponsible with his public server and exposed people to all kinds of nsfw content, in a space where there were minors aged 13 and frequently even younger. Even one of the mods was 12 at the time, mentioned in the previous document.

Triple threats / Our friend group

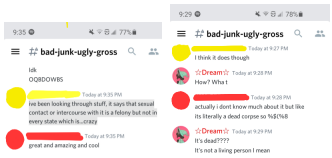
In early 2019 through 2021, I was involved in a friend group most frequently called “triple threats” but would have different names as well, such as “skrill kinnies” or “special ed class”. When it was created, there were ~9 or 10? people in this group, who were aged from 12 to 18.



The server was very “close” but also hostile and parasocial at the same time. Everyone in the group did concerning things to gain Bones’ approval and attention. All of us were huge fans of him and his content, and naturally being young as 12-13, wanted him to spend time with us. We would roleplay with each other, vent about personal situations, call and play games, even share nsfw and talk about personal experiences - Bones knew the ages of everyone in the server but would frequently share inappropriate content in a channel called the “meat-room” which was basically the nsfw channel, and there was no age requirement for anything in this server.

Nsfw content and images would frequently be shared in this server. Topics such as n*crophilia or inc*st were also brought up, sometimes directly from Bones himself.

Some of the group members replying to the n*crophilia topic brought up by Bones. While he isn't in the screenshots, it does show that these topics were brought up around us when we were 13-15 years old, and he was 18 at this time (this screenshot was taken sometime around 2020). These were given to me by Pk Thunder, who made this doc, and is “Dream” in the messages.



In early 2019, one of the members was 12 years old at the time. They were the victim who wrote the first document. In the “triple threats” server, we had an inside joke referencing the age of this person, where basically we would just spam “twelve” and it would be brought up frequently. Bones knew that this person was 5 years younger than him and continued to share nsfw around and directly to them.

Sharing nsfw artwork / bringing up nsfw topics

I no longer have access to what was talked about in the “triple threats” server which was the majority of it, however I still have my dms with Bones from his deleted account.

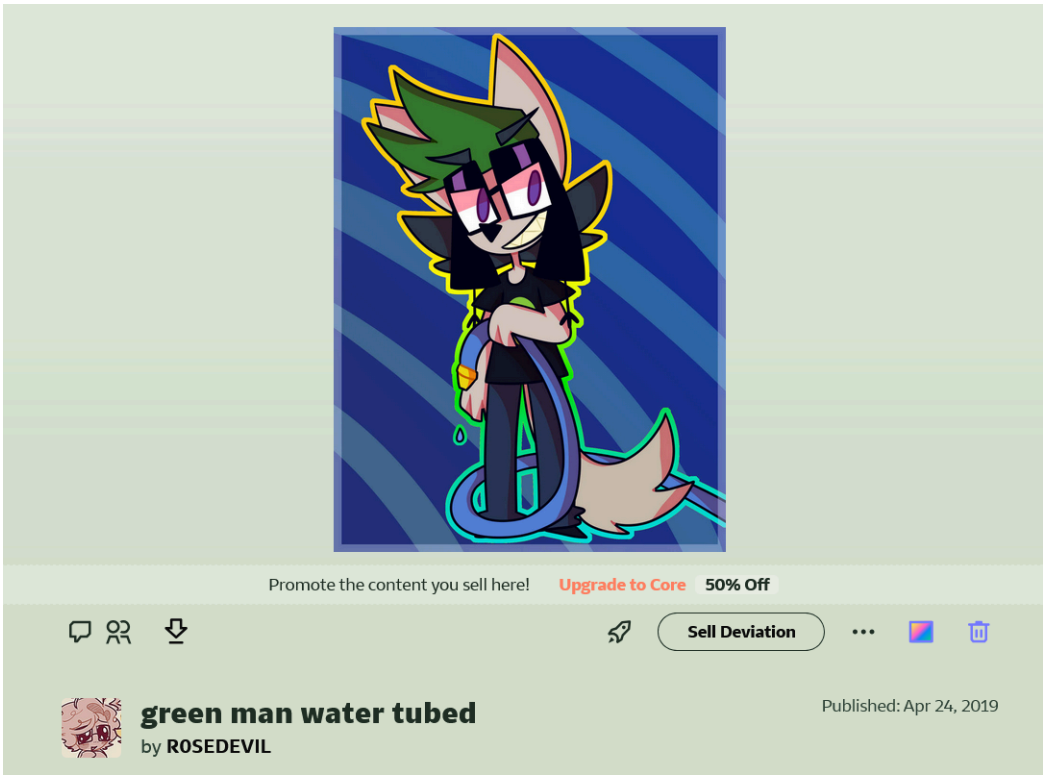
(He would frequently bring up being afraid of being called out, but he continued doing these things and being inappropriate with minors anyway.)

Fetish roleplays

I do not have much proof for this section due to, again, the server being deleted, however I will recount what I can remember. In April of 2019, when I was 13, Bones would start fetish-y roleplays with me and another member of the “triple threats” server. Usually, we would roleplay, with him using his oc Mystery and me/other members using our own ocs. On some occasions we would just use our sonas/our actual selves. Some of these roleplays involved a “water tube” where Bones would roleplay with our sonas together.. One specific roleplay scenario was where he tied me to a chair and used his “water tube” to inflate me with. At the time I didn’t think much of it and went along with the roleplay, as I saw this as just him being playful.

After this roleplay happened, I made this drawing of Bones’ sona holding the “water tube” as it was something funny to me:



This is most of the proof I have of it happening, as I cannot get messages from the server. Here are some of the comments left on the drawing - first comment being from another member of the server who was 13 at the time, referencing something that Bones said in the server:

Next screenshot is not exactly fetishistic, but more just him being inappropriate with me when I was 14 while roleplaying:

Fetishistic artwork of minors

Bones had a habit of drawing him and his friends' sonas in vore situations, specifically "micro vore" where his sona would be large and his friends' sonas would be tiny, and he would be eating them. He denies that this is a fetish, but based on vore artwork he has made as recently as 2024, it very clearly is.

Even if this was not a fetish for him at the time, the connotations are there - and he made these drawings of himself and minors as young as 13 years old.

Edit 5/4/25 - I have found the exchange I had with Bones, where he asked me if I wanted vore art. This screenshot was from 2019 from a group that has been deleted:

If you've read Bones' "td-response" carrd before, you have probably seen this image censored. I didn't feel comfortable with my sona being uncensored until now, I finally feel okay with having it out there. ~~While I no longer have the message context for how the art was made, I will explain what I remember.~~

~~Around May 2019, I was 13 and Bones was 17. One day while we were on a call together, Bones asked me "since your sona is named spaghetti, can I draw myself voring you?" and I said yes, because Bones was my friend and idol, I looked up to him. I was happy to get this sort of attention at the time. A few days later, bones drew this drawing of our sonas together.~~

Something to note is that after this art was made, I immediately made it my profile picture on discord because I found it funny. Bones quickly noticed a few minutes later and asked me to change it and never show the drawing to anyone outside of our friend group, and told me it was because he was scared of other people seeing it, including his partner at the time (now ex partner) who had a strong dislike toward vore content. I complied and changed it as I didn't want him to get into any trouble.

This was my sona. Bones knew this was a representation of me, where I was 13.

He drew my sona multiple times around this period, second image being another vore-related drawing:

Here was the full drawing, with all the members of the “triple threats” group. My sona has been uncensored:

Miscellaneous

Bones had a habit of being very secretive with his actions. He didn't want anyone to find out about how he treated his friends who were 12/13 years old, often deleting messages or removing our access to certain channels or the server entirely.

In ~May 2020, he archived our main, original server, full of roleplays and messages from January 2019 - May 2020. This server contained a substantial amount of content, me and other members would use it to store information about our ocs, art, pictures, etc.

After the archive, if any of us ever wanted to retrieve information from the original server, we would have to ask him directly and tell him why we wanted to see it or else he would be paranoid - here was an instance of myself wanting to see content from the past server and him getting afraid about it.

(Him worried about being called out over the contents of the old server)

Mystery's rename

This section is not to accuse Bones of anything in particular. It is just a strange occurrence that has stuck with me.

If you are familiar with Bones' story "Doll Eye", you probably are aware of his oc, Mystery Burns. It's his main oc and mascot. "Mystery" is his chosen name, while "Victor" is his birth name.

You can probably tell from the screenshots, my name is Victor, too. This has been my name alongside "cain" for as long as I knew Bones, since I was 12. One day in 2020, a bit later when I had turned 15 and Bones was 19, he pinged me in his public server and asked "How would you feel if mystery was named after you? I'm giving you the curse now"

(The curse = having an oc who shares the same name as you. context: Mystery's previous birth name before this change was Jeremy, and Jeremy is Bones' name, which is why he wanted to change it.)

I remember replying to his message and being put off by it. Said something along the lines of "that'd be scary". It was at this point I had already been distancing myself from Bones and his ocs, not really wanting to have as deep of an association as I did before.

Bones went ahead with the name change and it has affected me for years now that I share a name with his most important character. I find it really odd, that he knew he was going to specifically use my name, someone that he had groomed, for his oc.

Continuing to be friends with minors

It is now known that Bones was advised against being friends with young people multiple times, one of these instances being from his (now ex) partner:

Nothing against them, idk, I've just never really liked them.
And seeing who they hang with / their friendships, it makes the point even stronger 🥴

Deleted User (Bones)

HONESTLY I don't think I'll be personal with people anymore, except for you (especially because I trust you) and a few people I know in real life like family and mutuals, BUT even with them honestly I'm not willing to go all in with trust.

In the above messages, Bones is advised to no longer be friends with me, however he never really brought up distancing himself from me - In fact, I was the only one to cut off bones in the first place, after finding out that he said racial slurs in this callout, made in 2021.
These are messages where I cut Bones myself, in 2021:

I am really not sure what else I can do/learn as of now /gen
I will try my best
I don't know what I can do to make up for the horrible shit I've done - I have considered retiring out of respect but I am not in the position to do that I am really sorry to anyone that has been hurt. I bring it with me each day and I will bring it with me in the grave
I hope u have a good day. I am sorry for disappointing you

victor 10/24/2021 12:34 AM
it just kind of seems like you're repeating things and not admitting you were racist, i think you should take a break from the internet for now. you fucked up but a break might help you think about everything and maybe you would know how to respond afterward. it's good you have been working on learning and changing and im happy you have been, but i dont know how to feel about you for now. i really hope you never do it again

At the psyche ward 10/24/2021 12:39 AM
I'm sorry it comes across that way - maybe we have different definitions of the word racist?
From the info I've gathered in my own experience a racist person is someone who has prejudice or hate towards a different race
Which does not describe my situation
The action could be considered racist because it's harmful towards a different race but it's more out of a lack of knowledge rather than hate or prejudice?
When I made those jokes I meant to mock racist people in a way. A weird tasteless way for sure but that was the intent somewhat
Once I have learned I quit it
Making sure though - I am not defending what I have done, it genuinely sucked

victor 10/24/2021 12:55 AM
using the n slur is racist even if you're not trying to be or just joking about it, there is a lot of history behind it i'm pretty sure you know that by now but using it at all was racist in itself, especially when you were in a call with someone whos a poc. it's good that you quit and changed, but you not knowing is not an excuse and doesn't mean your behavior was not racist. i think you just need to admit that the way you acted in the past was indeed that way and just continue working on improving

After this, we did not speak to each other for months. But, Bones and I became mutuals/acquaintances once again in 2022 (I contacted him with concerns about something else, this situation is unrelated to everything mentioned here entirely.) We were older now, in these screenshots he was 20 years old, and I was 16.

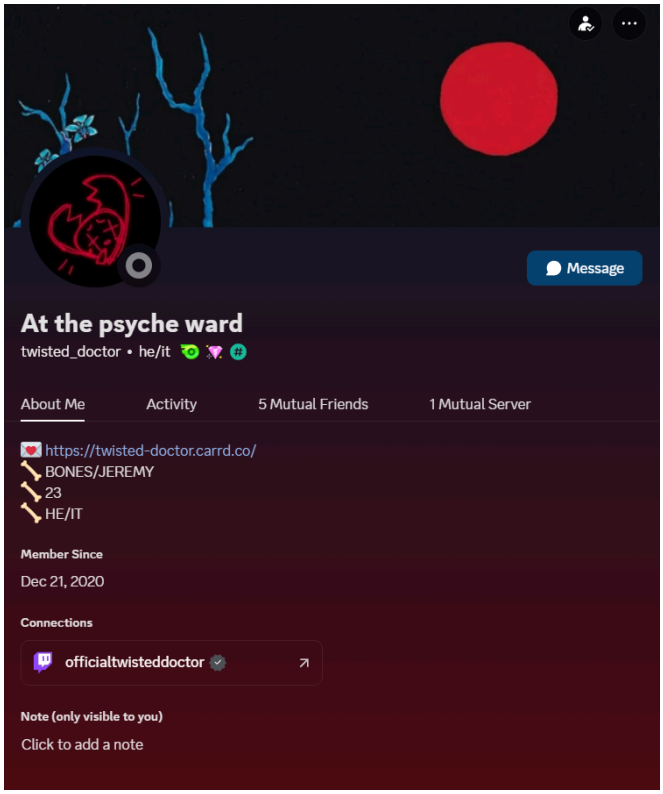
Currently, as of May 3rd, 2025, I still have Bones on my friends list. We don't talk anymore, but this is to show that he's never really cut me off himself.



Final words

To end this document off, I would like to ask that you listen to the other victims' experiences, as well as statements from ex-friends of Bones who spent years being around him. I knew a lot of these people personally, considered them good friends of mine, and we were all witnesses of Bones' behavior.

Especially listen to the voice of the first victim's experience as well, who made the first callout, and was extremely brave to come out about their experience.

I created this document so that the first victim of Bones' grooming wouldn't be the only voice. Bones has done this with multiple people; some to a greater extent than others, but either way, we are permanently shaped by the way he treated us and content that he exposed us to as young as 12 years old. I hope now that we can heal and move on from him entirely.
Thank you for taking time to listen to my side.
